

station during the pendency of its application for a period of up to 180 days under a conditional permit. Conditional operations may commence upon the filing of a properly completed formal application that complies with § 90.127 if the application, when frequency coordination is required, is accompanied by evidence of frequency coordination in accordance with §§ 90.175 and 90.176. Operation under such a permit is evidenced by retaining with the station records the original conditional licensing 572C Certification Form containing the certifications that satisfy the provisions of § 90.159(b).

(j) An applicant for a General Mobile Radio Service system license, sharing a multiple-licensed base station used as a mobile relay station, may operate the system for a period of 180 days, under a temporary permit, evidenced by a properly executed certification made on FCC Form 574-T, after mailing FCC Form 574 to the Commission.

§ 1.926 Application for renewal of license.

(a) Application for renewal of a station license shall be submitted on the appropriate FCC Form indicated below:

(1) Renewal of station or system authorizations in the Private Land Mobile Radio Services (part 90 of this chapter), the General Mobile Radio Service (part 95, subpart A of this chapter), and the Interactive Video and Data Service (part 95, subpart F of this chapter) shall be submitted on FCC Form 574-R when the licensee has received that Form in the mail from the Commission. If the licensee has not received the Commission-generated Form 574-R within sixty (60) days of expiration, application for renewal of station or system license shall be submitted on FCC Form 405-A.

(2) Renewal of marine coast station authorizations (§ 80.19 of this chapter) and aviation ground station authorizations (§ 87.33 of this chapter) must be submitted on FCC Form 452-R.

(3) Renewal of aircraft radio station authorizations and ship radio station authorizations shall be submitted on FCC Form 405-B.

(4) Renewal of an amateur operator license or a combined amateur operator/station license shall be submitted on FCC Form 610.

(5) Renewal of an amateur club, military recreation, or Radio Amateur Civil Emergency Service (RACES) station license shall be submitted on FCC Form 610-B.

(6) Renewal of station authorizations in the Private Operational Fixed Microwave Service (part 101 of this chapter) shall be submitted on such form as the Commission may designate by the public notice in accordance with the provisions of § 101.13 of this chapter.

(b) All applications for renewal of license must be made during the license term and should be filed within 90 days but not later than 30 days prior to the end of the license term. In any case in which the licensee has, in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, made timely and sufficient application for renewal of license, no license with reference to any activity of a continuing nature shall expire until such application shall have been finally determined.

(c) Reinstatement of an expired license in the Private Land Mobile Radio Services may be requested up to thirty (30) days after the expiration date using FCC Form 574, 574-R or 405-A. See § 1.4.

§ 1.934 Procedure with respect to amateur radio operator license.

Each candidate for an amateur radio license which requires the applicant to pass one or more examination elements must present the examiner(s) with a properly completed FCC Form 610 prior to the examination. Upon completion of the examination, the examiner(s) will immediately grade the test papers. If the applicant is successful, the examiner(s) will forward the candidate's application to: (a) The Commission's Gettysburg, Pennsylvania facility for an application for a Novice Class operator license, or (b) a Volunteer-Examiner Coordinator (VEC) for all other classes of operator licenses. The examiners will then issue a certificate for successful completion of an amateur radio operator examination. A VEC will forward the application to the Commission's Gettysburg, Pennsylvania facility.
